

TERRY MELVILLE'S THE BETTY CREATIVE AWARDS

THE BETTY CREATIVE AWARDS is a unique learning experience for university students comprised of three parts;

- Competition
- Lecture series
- Fashion show & awards ceremony

To grow the brand, we are enhancing our website platform, social media presence, and developing next year's competition and future programs for university students.

Terry Melville, founder of THE BETTY CREATIVE AWARDS is looking for candidates to handle these responsibilities in the following categories:

- Researcher to help identify company sponsors
- Writer to work on PR, social media and an online magazine
- Graphic Designer for social media and an online magazine
- Event Coordinator for student events
- Student entrepreneur for developing the next THE BETTY CREATIVE AWARDS with Terry Melville

Terry Melville is looking for students who are:

- Passionate about their work and have a thirst for learning and applying new skills.
- Have a curious mind and consider themselves high achievers.
- Are excited about working in collaboration with others resulting in an outcome that is rewarding and exciting.
- Dedicated and flexible, willing to take what is needed to get the job done.
- Have an entrepreneurial spirit with the enjoyment of creativity and innovation.

It would be an asset if candidates had an interest in fashion, design, pop culture and lifestyle trends.

Location: HQ Greensboro

Hours: Flexible

Requirements: Must have an Apple computer to interface with Terry Melville's computer

Contact Information:

Terry Melville

thebettycreativeawards@gmail.com

919-260-1900

Students can find out more about THE BETTY CREATIVE AWARDS by visiting terrymelville.com