

Zander Fur Company, located in Southern New Jersey, is going to run a route to buy fur in NC for the first time on March 20 - 21. Zander is a family owned and has been buying and selling fur for over 40 years. Zander is interested in all species of wild fur and will grade and pay when you bring your pelts to the scheduled stops. In addition to all species of stretched and dried pelts, Zander will also buy skinned (typically referred to as green) frozen beaver and otter.
